

Straw Men

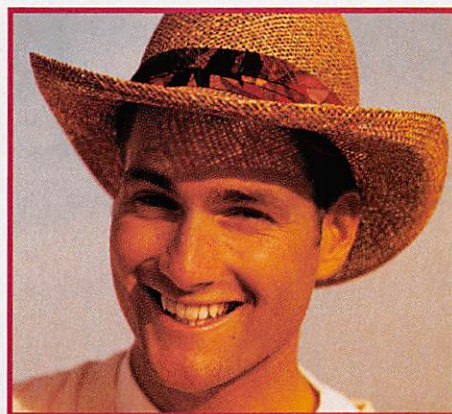

They're nothing new under the sun, but they're still the best thing to wear out in it

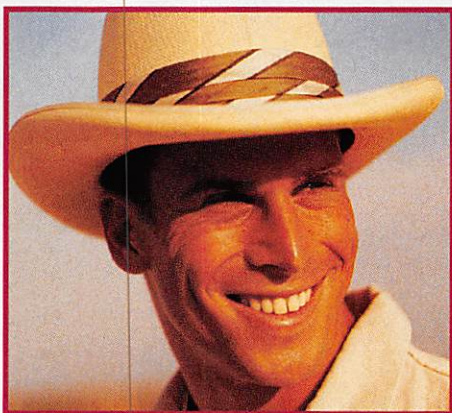

Antique Stetson cowboy hat available at Billy Martin's in New York, $150

Brooks Brothers coconut hat with madras band and telescope crown, $25

Raffia-straw planter's hat with madras band at Paul Stuart in New York, $38

Ecuadorian-straw Caribbean hat with exchangeable band from Biltmore, $55

If it seems like old hat, it is. Coconut porkpie from Esquire, June 1944

Handwoven toquilla-straw panama hat available from Lands' End, $30

Coarse-baku-straw fedora with pinch-front crown from Makins Hats, $110

Monte Cristi fino panama fedora at Worth & Worth in New York, $350

Crushable, naturally braided raffia-straw gambler hat from Biltmore, $45

you're feeling is the road.

More fun.

Inside, the layout illustrates Honda's knack for innovation. Both the driver and passenger enjoy airbag safety. It is all very new. But you don't feel out of place.

Back to the road.

More turns. A long straight. Another turn. Fun, fun, fun. In fact, you're starting to feel a little guilty.

That's easily resolved.

Spend the rest of the morning, even the afternoon, behind the wheel of your new Prelude Si 4WS.

You'll, undeniably, get over it.

The New Prelude

